

Men's Health Ambassador Training – Diabetes Education

(Faith-Based Partnership Initiative- (7 Congregations)

PURPOSE:

The MHA Training was designed as a training and education demonstration program to engage more African and Hispanic male I from diverse communities to understand and to consider an active role in prevention and wellness .The first series of training focused on improving diabetes awareness, management, and prevention.

Details or Outcomes:

30 male health ambassadors leaders from 7 partnering faith-based organizations have been trained. Preliminary evaluation of the community activities include one-on-one diabetes self-management tips, diabetes talks, and recruitment of citizens to sign healthy living pledges.

Health Reform – Town Hall Meeting – Healthcare Education

Be There for Each Other

Town Hall Conversations

The Affordable Healthcare Act

Monday, October 3, 2011
6:00pm - 8:30pm
Johnson C. Smith University

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Anton J. Gunn
Regional Director, Region IV
Office of Secretary
U.S. Department of Health and Human Services

For more info email
Cheryl Emanuel, MS, CSAPC
Cheryl.Emanuel@mecklenburgcountync.gov or call 704.432.0216

visit www.faithfultothecall.com

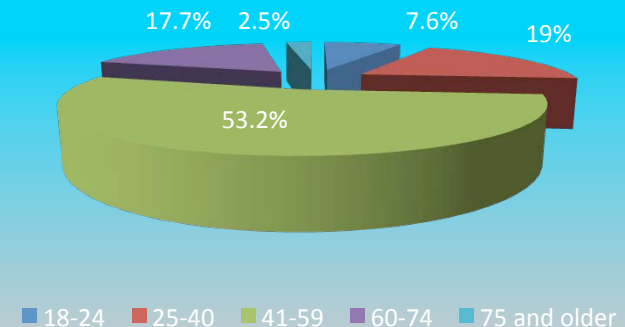

*Circles of Conversations:
Our Health, Our Priority*

PURPOSE:

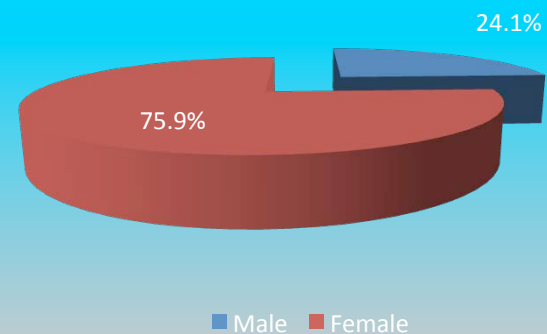

To educate our community on upcoming changes in the Health Care Reform

Survey Results From Participants:

Age Group

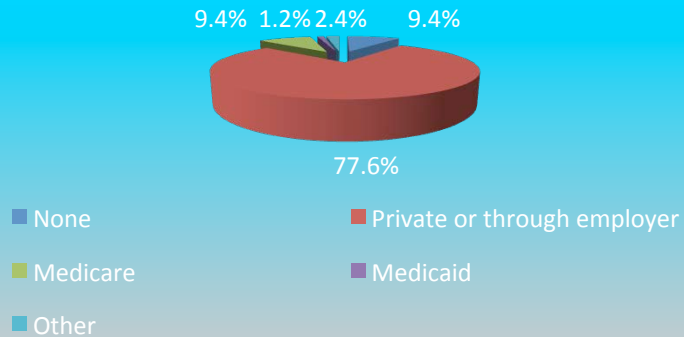

Gender

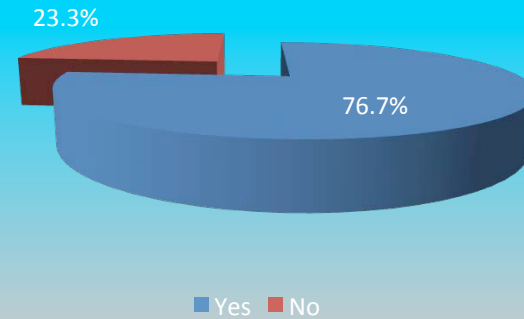

Health Reform – Town Hall Meeting – Survey Results

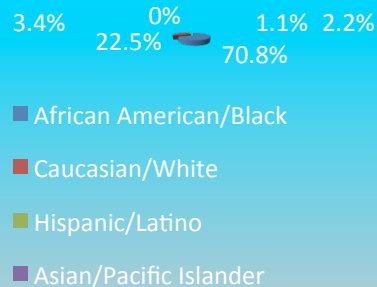

Type of Health Insurance?

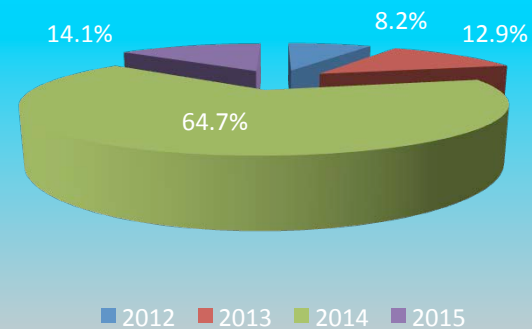

Employed?

Race or Heritage?

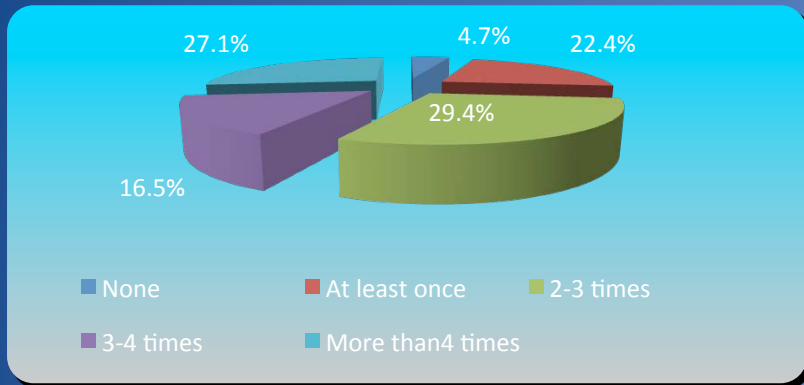

The health reform law will require nearly all Americans to have health insurance

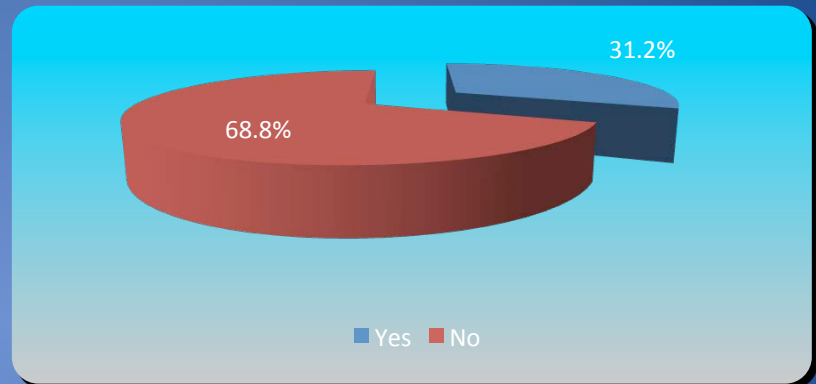

Health Reform – Town Hall Meeting – Survey Results

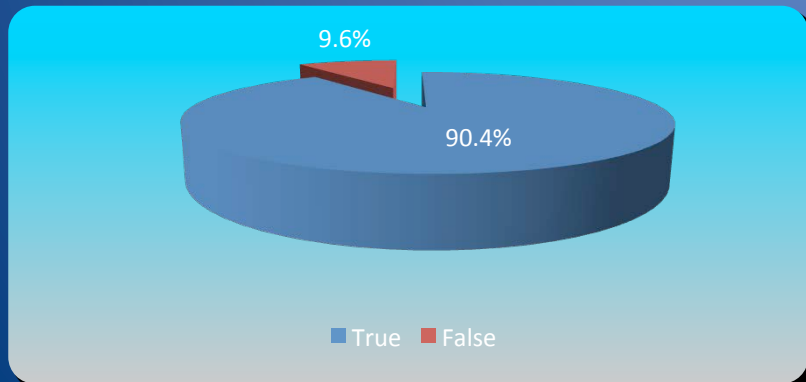

How many times in the past year have you visited a physician?

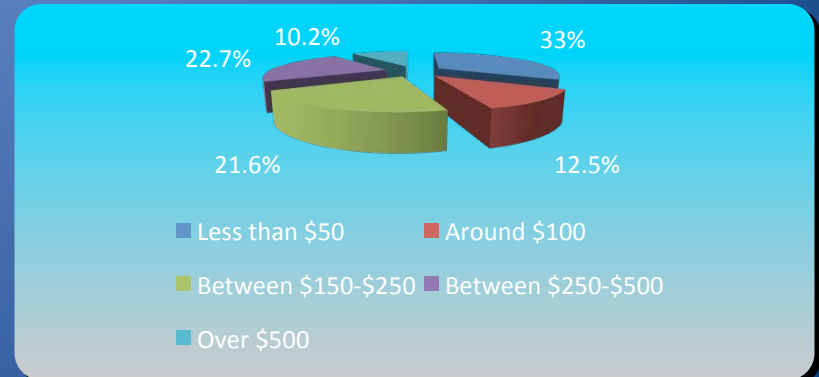

Will the health reform law create a new government run health insurance plan?

The health reform law will prohibit insurance companies from denying coverage based on medical

How much would you say you spend Monthly on your health care?

HealthCare Reforms- Hispanic Forum

September 2011/ Community Town Hall- Oct 2011

PURPOSE:

The Town Hall was the first Latino-specific event to be hosted in the county to provide the Hispanic population with educational and policy information as well as resources on the Affordable Health Care Act. MCHD created a partnership with Bethesda Health Center, the Latin America Chamber, and the National Council of La Raza Annual Conference.

Details or Outcomes:

Outcome: This conference boasts an attendee list of almost 150 Latinas/ Latinos creating an opportunity for the citizens to ask questions and receive resource information.

Join Bethesda Health Care's

HEALTH CARE REFORM

Impact in the Immigrant Community

Featured Speaker:
Jennifer Ng'andu
Deputy Director,
Health Policy Project Office
of Research, Advocacy, and Legislation
National Council of La Raza (NCLR)

Thursday,
29 September 2011
at 11:00 AM

133 STETSON DRIVE, CHARLOTTE, NC 28262
RSVP by September 22 to rsvpbethesda@gmail.com

This program is funded by The NC Office of Minority & Health Disparities and The Mecklenburg County Health Department.
For more info email Wendy Mateo
wendymateo@hotmail.com or call 704.596.5606

HIV Awareness

December 2011/Participated in HIV Events

2011 World AIDS Day Charlotte

PURPOSE:

To spread awareness and support to AIDS & HIV positive victims

Heart Disease – Village Heart BEAT

December - February 2012/ Citizen Engagement (16 Community Partners)

PURPOSE:

Create educational awareness to reduce heart disease risk factors among African American and Hispanic women.

OURHEALTHOURCOMMUNITY
OURPRIORITY

Heart Disease is the #1 Silent Killer of Women of Color

KNOW YOUR RISK FACTORS

Village HeartBEAT
Building Education & Accountability Together
A Mecklenburg County Initiative

The Village Heart BEAT is a Mecklenburg County Health Department initiative to reduce heart disease and obesity among African American and Hispanic women ages 18-80. Funded by the NC Office of Minority and Health Disparities, a series of community activities will focus on:

- HEART DISEASE RISK FACTORS
- PREVENTATIVE HEALTH SCREENINGS
- ACCESS TO EDUCATIONAL RESOURCES FOR HEALTHY LIFESTYLE CHOICES

Heart Disease – BOCC - February 2012/County Commissioner Meeting

SAVE THE DATE

Wear Red!

Tuesday
Feb. 21st 2012
@6:00 PM
County Commissioner Meeting
Mecklenburg County
Government Center
600 E 4th Street

February - Heart Disease Month
REQUEST ATTENDANCE
County Commissioner Meeting
WEAR RED PURPOSE: A proactive strategy to keep local policy makers aware of our community efforts as a unified body of citizens committed to address heart disease risk factors and obesity, specifically among communities of color

L.I.G.H.T.S. Expo – Focus (Heart Awareness, STEM)

March 2012/ Partnership Created with UNCC PRODUCE and Center for Professional Ethics'
Target High School & College

PURPOSE:

The Ladies Impacting Girls in Health, Technology and Science (L.I.G.H.T.S.) Expo introduced young ladies in high school to careers and other opportunities in health and science, technology, engineering and math (STEM) disciplines.

Details or Outcomes:

48 Individuals participated in four interactive workshop activities and a zumba class. The workshops were Smart Girls Rock, STDs/IV – But He Looked OK, Obesity and You – It's a Health Thang – Young Should Understand, Alcohol Impairment – Alcohol, Drugs, Defence – Oh My, and Zumba Class.

Planting Seeds of Wellness 5k

April 2012/Faith-Based Community Partners Walk for Wellness

LET'S WALK SATURDAY! - 04 | 28 | 12

RAIN OR SHINE

planting the seeds of wellness

SAVE THE DATE FOR OUR ANNUAL 5K/RUN WALK!

Walk to celebrate our commitment to make our health our priority and our personal commitment to help another sister.

Registration forms available at McCrorey YMCA, 3801 Beatties Ford Road, Charlotte, NC 28216. Or log onto WWW.VILLAGEHB.ORG.

PURPOSE:

To focus on health improvement in Charlotte community. To bring together Faith-Based Community Partners in efforts to plant seeds of wellness.

2011-2012 Photos of Event

Faithful to the Call Program- April 2012

April 2012/ Banquet Program – Camino Del Ray Baptist Church

SPECIAL THANKS TO OUR FAITH BASED PARTNERS

planting the seeds of wellness

You are cordially invited to attend the annual

FAITHFUL THE CALL 2012 BANQUET

MONDAY,
APRIL 30TH - 6:00 PM

CAMINO DEL RAY
BAPTIST CHURCH

133 STETSON DRIVE 28262 •
CALL FOR QUESTIONS 704 596 7743

Senior Month – May 2012

Celebrating Our Seniors

